Harris Monos Twice Indicted By Grand Jury As Incendiary

Proprietor of Restaurant Held on Charge of Arson Which Caused Loss of $50,000 Last January—Brother-in-Law Makes Sensational Affidavit Alleging He Caught Monos in Street.

Overt Act of Starting Blaze on Lower Main

Harris Monos, proprietor of Main Street Cafe, before it was destroyed by fire January 8, was indicted by a special grand jury early this afternoon for arson, or the felonious destruction of the premises by fire. He is indicted on two counts.

Judge Withers this afternoon set $3,000 as Monos' bond pending trial at the May criminal term of the court. The commonwealth's attorney asked for $5,000. While Monos had not given the bond at this writing, it was said that he would be able to give it through relatives during the course of the afternoon.

It was for this purpose that the special grand jury was ordered by Judge D. Price Withers last night at the request of Commonwealth's Attorney J. W. Garter who pledged police officers engaged on the case to secrecy until the arrest of Monos which took place at half past nine o'clock this morning.

Monos was indicted on the testimony of half a dozen witnesses the principal weapon of offense in the hands of the commonwealth being an affidavit which was made yesterday by F. S. Brady, brother-in-law of Monos, who declares that he caught Monos in the overt act of setting fire to his premises at 1 o'clock on the morning of the fire. It will be recalled that the fire spread to Silverman's clothing store, Below's jewelry store and after destroying these reached Benefield and Motley's furniture store causing a total monetary loss of $50,000.

Monos who remained in custody of the chief of police in the latter's office during the session of the grand jury said this morning that it was "just a hold up." Beyond this he would say nothing.

The grand jury which was empaneled today was composed of Col. O. W. Dudley, foreman, Rice Gwynn, T. A. F. Mum, J. M. Richards, C. G. H. Head, C. B. Davis, E. B. Withers and A. R. Cravens. The investigation lasted from 10 o'clock until after 12, during which time a very exhaustive investigation was made.

Judge Withers was unaware of the purpose of the special session asked for by the commonwealth's attorney and this morning he simply told the jury that it was summoned in an emergency for a matter to be presented by the commonwealth's attorney. The purpose for the secrecy was revealed today when it was learned that it had been decided to wait until today before announcing the indictment.

The grand jury had been in its room for only half an hour when it asked to make a report to the judge. Col. Dudley said that F. S. Brady, the first witness, and the most vital of all, had declined to testify.

Judge Withers then addressed himself to Brady, a man in his early twenties, and asked him severely why it was that he declined.

"I'm sick, judge," he said, "and don't feel like testifying."

Judge Withers then promptly reminded the young man that he had the choice of testifying or going to jail, it being explained that he was compelled to testify when asked to do before the inquisitorial body.

It was plainly seen that Brady was torn by conflicting emotions, and there was an embarrassing pause.

Trade Bodies to Meet to Discuss New Sales Plan

Directors of Leading Organizations to Go Into Situation Presented by Co-operative Marketing.

A conference has been called for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, directors of the Danville Tobacco Association, the local tobacco warehousemen and the directors of the Young Men's Business Club for the purpose of discussing the situation relative to the co-operative marketing movement, the success or failure of which will mean much to Danville's economic welfare. It was said that the meeting would be an executive one for the purpose of reaching some decision upon the Danville's attitude on this highly important question. It is possible that some formal statement may be addressed to the farmers at the end of the meeting and that the possible that whatever recommendations are arrived at will be submitted first to the entire membership of the bodies represented at the meeting.

The meeting has been called with a view to removing certain misconceptions regarding Danville which, in the minds of some, have been seriously spread about the surrounding country and which if unchecked might have serious consequences.

Transfer Driver Found With Booze

When L. W. Dooley, Jr., a transfer car driver, saw police officers pursuing him, he realized he must do something right then to get rid of a certain package he was carrying or go to jail. Police Officers J. T. Clark and O. T. Cook had good reasons to believe Dooley had possession of a package with which he had no business. All were going down Main street. Dooley knew that the officers were after him and he darted into a hallway of stairs leading to a boarding house on lower Main street. The officers reached him before he had got half way up the stairs. Before they had the chance to prevent it, Dooley threw the package down the stairs. The crash of glass and the familiar odor which came from the liquid running down the steps convinced officers that it was whiskey and their belief that Dooley was carrying it was made certain. It was said that the officers to make sure of their charge against Dooley, secured some old rags and soaked them in the whiskey on the steps and took them to the police station in order to have more substantial evidence against their prisoner. Dooley was placed under arrest and placed under a bond of $250.

Terms of Contract For Warehousemen

Growers Co-operative Marketing Association Offer Three Methods by Which Sales May Be Made.

The regular monthly meeting of the Danville Warehouse Corporation will be held tomorrow, at which time it is expected that further discussion will take place over the co-operative marketing movement.

Copies of the contract which Tucker C. Watkins, director of warehouses for the Co-operative Marketing Association presented to the Virginia warehousemen at South Boston have been brought to Danville and have been read with keen interest by the tobacco men.

As presented by Aaron Sappin, attorney for the association, the contract provides that the association will either lease the warehouse property for five years and four months beginning September 1, at six per cent of its market value, the district corporation to pay taxes and insurance and to keep the plant in fair condition, or will buy at a price to be agreed upon. Three methods under which purchase may be made are outlined.

Under method one any mortgage or deed of trust not maturing before December 30, 1922, may remain upon the property. The association agrees to pay two-thirds of the market value in preferred capital stock of the district corporation in five classes, each bearing seven per cent cumulative dividends. The stock of the classes will be retired in 1924 and three in 1927. The remaining one-third will be paid in income serial bonds at six per cent which the corporation agrees to offer by the warehousemen, and the third by the warehousemen.

Should price not be fixed before August 1 transfer shall be made under provisional valuation until a final adjustment of price is reached. Both signers agree that the contract is unassailable.

Wild Westerners Are Held For Theft

Four youths here from Arizona charged with breaking into colored woman's house.

Four young men, none of them over 21 years of age, who say they are from the west, and their claim is borne out by their wearing apparel, were this morning held for the grand jury on warrants charging them with breaking into the house of Drew Black, colored, on Liberty Hill and stealing some foodstuffs and a few other articles.

Not only did they break in and take what they wanted, but from the condition officers found the interior of the house, it would seem that the youths tried some of their wild western capers, which are frequent in small mining towns. Several pieces of furniture were found to have been smashed and others overturned. Nothing was missed except a few eggs, an alarm clock and a safety razor outfit.

The boys claim that they went for the house out of the rain. They say they were hungry and without money and as long as they were there they decided to get something to eat. When asked what about the condition of the house, one of them said that it was an accident the result of a friendly scuffle between two of them.

The youths gave their names as Berkley Mave, Arthur Galleher, Charles Pereno and Peter Jackson. They said their home was in Arizona. The smallest of the four admitted to the police that he had served a term of four years in a New York prison. He said that he was implicated in an affair in which boys were found tampering with a gas meter.

All of them appeared in clothing similar to that worn by employees on ranches in the west. They wore heavy dark-colored shirts and two of them had their typical cowboy hats with large brims and high tapering crowns.

Drew found his house broken open about noon and notified the police. Officers George Price and O. S. Mayberry answered the call. They discovered the boys and were following them away. They were reported in the neighborhood of Green street park.

REJECT INVENTION

CHICAGO, April 6.—Illinois operators today in effect rejected the invention of Representative Nolan, of the House labor committee, for a conference.

ANGEL FACE BEST MUSICAL COMEDY IN SEVERAL YEARS

A comparatively small audience witnessed last night one of the best musical comedies which has been shown at the Majestic theatre for probably several years—"Angel Face" a Victor Herbert musical play in three acts given by a metropolitan cast of a high order of excellence from the humblest role to the principal characters.

The play, which had something to do with the vacant seats and this combined with other counter attractions in town and the fact that the show was booked on short notice combined to reduce the house.

The general opinion expressed however, was that "Angel Face" was perhaps the outstanding entertainment afforded the theatre-going public certainly this season. The production was not booked until about ten days ago when Manager Frank Schuler took advantage of an opportunity to secure it on its northward journey from New Orleans where it has been recently playing, to Philadelphia where the entire cast seen here last night will appear for probably a long run in the Walnut street theatre.

There is a wide margin of difference between the companies of players booked in the larger cities for the provincial tours and those selected to meet the approval of metropolitan theatre goers. The latter demand talent of a high order. The difference was quickly appreciated last night.

The cast of twenty-five performers accompanied by their own orchestra being well voiced and the supporting chorus being a handsome and beautifully gowned one. What is lacking in plot in "Angel Face" is made up by the alluring music of Victor Herbert and lyrics which are really charming. "I Might Be Your Once-in-a-While," "Angel Face," "How Do You Get That Way?" "That Haunting Waltz" were among the numbers which were recalled by the audience.

The musical comedy is replete with amusing episodes. The piece has as its vehicle the "monkey gland" in which an eccentric professor believing in a wonderful grand undertaker to regenerate a grandmother. Betty Wise who plays the title role but who is believed to be the aged woman again grown young. Then the fiancée of Tom Larkins, supposed to have drunk one of the professor's potions is believed to be the infant who suddenly makes its appearance in Larkins' studio. The play, with its amorous passages, songs and dialogue centers around these situations. John Young made a delightful leading man in the role of Larkins while Miss Margaret Bender was highly attractive as Betty. It would, however, be unjust to single out any particular performers for merit since the entire cast was unusually good and there was not a poor voice among any of the leading characters.

The stage effects were handsome, in fact the whole musical comedy was "put on" in brilliant style and was brilliantly performed.

Style Show Ended Last Night; Was Splendid Success

The Style Show came to a close last night, the finale being more gorgeous than anything in the way of fashions ever seen before in Danville. The show was so constructed as to have received favorable attention anywhere; so presented as to make a looker-on wish for more.

An entirely new set of costumes were used by all of the exhibitors last night and yesterday afternoon—costumes that were even more beautiful than those shown on Wednesday. The models, taught by experience, were more modish and the whole show moved faster and with more vim.

It was the consensus of opinion that Danville's first attempt at a Style Show was not only a great success, but a feature that should be repeated from year to year. It is very probable that the merchants will put on a fashion show next year.

The crowd last night was large, considering the weather, and the other attractions in the effect, last night was as large as the crowd of Wednesday night. Yesterday afternoon the crowd was somewhat smaller owing to the miserable weather.

That the people of Danville have been greatly delighted by the Style Show is putting it mildly. It was a revelation to all that the merchants of the city could present such an exquisite array of costumes out of their own stocks in such a striking manner. It was a revelation to the manner born when it comes to wearing gowns gracefully; and those that are wise about such matters say that it is a few things.

Last night yesterday evening and last night seats were provided for those who desired to be seated. This was a boon to many who wished to avoid the strain of standing. The evening lighted effect last night was much better than on the previous night. Again the little matter of experience dictated the improvement. Messrs. Brown and White, the former of the Brown Electric Co. and the latter with the Maxwell Auto people, were largely responsible for the splendid lighting effect.

Two more days of the exposition remain. The attendance has been improving daily throughout the week and today and tomorrow it is expected that the peak will be reached. The splendid music furnished by Tarborough's band has proved so attractive, especially the dance music, that many couples have taken advantage of it to dance after the other attractions were over.

Warns Navy Men Of Propaganda

Secretary Denby Makes Known Existence of "Simister Influences" Being Exerted Abroad.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—My attention has been called to the fact that there is sinister propaganda by societies having their origin in foreign countries to undermine the morale of the navy and to instigate into the personnel elements of disloyalty and disorder.

This is the opening paragraph of a general order broadcasted to the naval service today by Secretary of the Navy Denby. Mr. Denby makes it clear that he has every confidence in the loyalty of the personnel of the navy and merely seeks to make sure that they are not misled into joining such societies.

While no particular societies are mentioned, Secretary Denby in conclusion appeal "to the officers and men of the service to uphold the constitution of the United States and to obey all lawful orders. Should there be any such men in the navy today it is almost certain that if they do not disengage themselves from affiliation with such organizations they ultimately will be detected."

"I have no fear that men in any considerable number may at any time anywhere be seduced from their allegiance to their country's flag," said Secretary Denby. "It is not, therefore, through any thought or suggestion that the United States navy is in the slightest danger from propaganda. I am trying to save a few individuals who might otherwise affiliate themselves with societies teaching those things which cannot be tolerated in an organization sworn to uphold the constitution of the United States and to obey all lawful orders. Should there be any such men in the navy today it is almost certain that if they do not disengage themselves from affiliation with such organizations they ultimately will be detected."

"I am trying to rescue the number of prisoners in naval prisons. I could not now, however, to any man who in communication or action, in violation of his oath, is guilty of acts of disloyalty to his country."

"Because I have been one of you I know that all men have their periods of unhappiness or imagined ill-treatment, homesickness and discontent. Such periods are the normal condition of men in the naval service. They are a part of life. We must not let them lead us into such folly as desertion or resistance to lawful authority, not particularly into revolt by force or the influence of improper theories of government or false dreams of a better state to be erected by anarchy and violence."

Clipper Grabs Girl By Braid, Cuts It Off Close To Head

NEW YORK, April 7.—Parents in Helldorado, N. J., were roused to a frenzy of wrath and excitement last evening when news spread of the theft of the hair of Helen Becker, 11, a school girl. The child's hair was long and of fine quality, and she wore it in a heavy braid down her back. Her usual route from school to her home includes a short cut through an alley, but the section she traverses is not at all of the slum type.

While the child walked through this alley yesterday afternoon she saw a man with dark mustache looking at her, but, after a glance, paid no special attention to him.

Suddenly she felt her braid caught in a strong grasp, held tightly for an instant, and then she was free. She looked on the man behind her. He had drawn a sharp knife and slashed the braid off close to the head. The man was gone before the frightened child could give an alarm.

Jacob Becker, her stepfather, reported the attack to the police. He is well-to-do lumberman and offered any help in his power to insure punishment of the clipper.

Lynchburg Will Not Sell Auction House To Farmers

LYNCHBURG, April 7.—Decision not to sign the contract for warehouse lease or rental offered at South Boston by the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has been made by the Lynchburg Tobacco Warehouse Company and J. Frank Pugh, vice president who attended the meeting of market men held Wednesday. Auction sales will be conducted in Lynchburg, according to usual custom, Mr. Robertson said.

Reports come from Danville to the effect that the warehouses of that city will remain outside the group of signers and that the same is true in Wilkeson, N. C. where the business interests of the city are said to be making arrangements for auction sales to continue next year. Winston-Salem was not represented at the meeting of warehouse men in Greensboro yesterday, according to accounts from that city.

Mr. Robertson said that not all of the markets represented at the South Boston meeting entered into the agreement and that the majority of those who signed did so with reservations that they might take the contract home and make a final decision upon ratification after consulting with local business interests.

Lynchburg warehouse men had not planned to be represented at the meeting until Monday since the only communication from the association came in the form of a circular letter. At a meeting held Monday at the Chamber of Commerce, however, it was decided to be on hand to hear the terms to be offered by the association. It was said yesterday that while warehouse men here would not consent signing the contract, they would be glad to have representatives of the association come to Lynchburg and talk over other terms under which the owners will be willing to lease their floors.

—Dr. T. L. Sednor, with several other Danville dentists, is attending the annual meeting of the Piedmont Dental Society convening in Lynchburg.

Another World War Hero Who Rivals Sergeant York Is Found

PORTSMOUTH, April 5.—There was unearthed in Craddock, a hero who rivals Sergeant York and Woodall for World War honors. He is former Marine Sergeant Samuel Gluckman, now member of Portsmouth post of the American Legion and is a shiner and Scotch Rite Master. He is a native of Austria and had served two enlistments in the army before the outbreak of the World War.

It was not until Gluckman went to Washington in regard to a claim because the Veterans' Bureau that his deeds became acquainted with the fact of his heroism as he had modestly and quietly taken a place as employee of the navy yard when he left the army.

Too modest to tell his own story it had to be dragged from him piece-meal. He fought seven major engagements—at Verdun, Belleau Wood, Chateau Thierry, Marbach, St. Mihiel, Soissons and Blanc Mont. The above list of offenses includes all of the hardest-fought battles of the war and during one of these engagements Gluckman was one of 12 survivors of a company of 250 gallant marines who went over the top together. It was on October 3, 1918, that Gluckman captured 20 Germans single-handed. While on a trip to get water for his comrades who were on Transilva farm without food or water, he captured a lone German soldier who was popping away at his comrades with a machine gun. Instead of bayonetting the Hun, Gluckman forced him to lead him to the rest of the advance party. Coming to a shell hole some 30 feet in depth, although partially wounded he crawled amongst them with a hand grenade and forced them all to go over the top and into the hands of other members of his own outfit.

He regained the advance, as soon as his wound was dressed. He was ordered back to the evacuation hospital but on the way to the dressing

49 Quarts, 2 Autos, And 3 Men Captured

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 7.—Forty-nine quarts of wicked moonshine, three negroes, and two automobiles, one Ford and one Lexington, represent the net result of a neat trap laid by a combination of city and county officers near the Battleground last night.

But for the darkness of the night and of a matter of speed it would be six negroes instead of three.

The negroes caught are Sam Dock and Mac and Will Emerson, all well known in the city. Plain-cloth men Boyles and Huffines and Deputy Sheriff John Hobbs turned the trick. They thought there might be something stirring out on the battle ground road last night about 10, so they camped out in the rain with their car parked across the road and waited.

First came a Ford. The officers ran up and turned three negroes, and found in the car some six quarts. The car they placed across the road by the side of their own car making a perfect blockade. Then they went up the road 50 yards and waited.

Along came a Lexington. The officers repeated their hail but the driver stepped on the gas and charged ahead full speed. Then he saw the blockade, stopped his car with screaming brakes and as the officers ran up and turned three negroes, heading in three different directions and all running as only a negro would, a co-packer him can run. The officers already had three prisoners on their hands and they couldn't venture far and a few shots into the air failed to get results. But in the car they found 43 quarts of that same wicked moonshine.

It was all braded for Greensboro.

Northern Neck Makes Pearls from Fish Scales

HEATHSVILLE, Va., April 6.—In Fleeton they have employed a French woman, who is engaged in making imitation pearls from the essence of fish scales. She is said to have made some fine specimens of pearls.

This new and novel enterprise is attracting considerable attention. The fishermen are being paid 10 cents a pound for the fish scales.

The scales of only certain species of fish are good for this purpose, such as haddock, herring and sea bream, leaving white. The last year, it is said, six ton of alewife scales alone were collected and sold.

In Peary's Honor

The monument to Robert E. Peary, discoverer of the North Pole, unveiled yesterday by his daughter, Mrs. Edward Stafford, at Arlington National Cemetery.

Marked Money Leads To Arrest

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Accused of having accepted bribes on the "pomes," Norman S. Bowles was arrested at his office, 1245 E street, northwest yesterday by police of the city. Bowles was arrested on a similar charge and is a cut or bond in that case.

Detectives Lowry, Wilson and Marshall of the post precinct, alleged that Bowles accepted marked money when a lot that was given him and the marked money, police say, was found on him when he was arrested. He was released on $2,000 bond.

Bowles was convicted a year and a half ago in a case involving marked money and three others on a charge of conspiracy to defraud a bank and a street car company. He was released on a new trial and was held on $2,000 bond.

Edith Cavell's Betrayer to Die; Sentence Brings Loud Applause

MONS, Belgium, April 6.—Amand Jeannes was condemned to death in the court here last night for treason and espionage against Belgium and the allies during the war. The prisoner had boasted he was instrumental in bringing about the arrest and execution by the Germans of Edith Cavell, British war nurse, but this charge was not mentioned in the indictment against him.

There was a burst of applause in the court room when the sentence was passed, and a great crowd outside cheered Jeannes as he was taken to the death cell.

Many Cities Report Increase In Employment

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Increased employment ranging up to 28 per cent over the preceding month was reported today to the employment service of the department of labor from 43 of 66 representative cities for the month ending March 31. The auto, motive and allied industries, iron and steel and their products and lumber headed the trades showing improved activity. The net increase for the country, figured on reports from 1,428 firms, was 2 1/2 per cent.

Many of the 22 cities reporting decreases were in the New England States; their reports reflecting the results of the textile strike now in progress. Leather, chemical and food products also employed fewer workers in March than in February.

Denver led the reporting cities with an increase in employment in March of 28.2 per cent, Memphis being second with 18.1. The South indicated generally improved employment tone during March, the report said, with indications that further progress would be recorded in the next 30 days.

Despite some slackness in textiles, duetion up to the last day of the month and marked improvement in the iron and steel trades. The outlook promised a large farm acreage in crops this season.

Cotton mills in Mississippi were working "full time with a full force," Virginia industries were more active as a whole and the outlook was considered good. Lumber and fertilizers shared the increase in workers in Georgia during the past month. Atlanta reported "a little improvement in the industries," the demand for labor being about 8 per cent over that of January. Savannah indicated textiles, lumber and repair shops more active, but not sufficiently so to assimilate all available labor.

North Carolina textiles increased their forces in March, and the leading cities reported surplus labor being rapidly absorbed. In South Carolina, textiles receded slightly, but improvement in lumber and chemical trades more than made good the recession. The housing situation in the State has been much relieved, reports to the employment service said.

Unemployment in Florida was reported as "confined principally to common labor," with the demand for farm help equaling the supply.

Hardwood mills in Tennessee were said to be offsetting to some extent that decreased mining activity, with "unemployment now prevalent among skilled rather than unskilled labor." In March, and the majority of the lumber mills were on full time, reports to the service said.

Miss Stone Freed Of Murder Charge In Kinkead Case

NEW YORK, April 6.—Miss Olivia M. P. Stone, who shot and killed Ellis G. Kinkead, former corporation counsel of Cincinnati, August 5, 1921, tonight was acquitted of murder by a jury in the Brooklyn supreme court.

Hundreds of men and women who had gathered outside the court room cheered repeatedly when the verdict was announced, while those in the crowded courtroom also applauded.

The defendant, in contrast to her highly nervous condition throughout the trial, received the verdict calmly.

"Thank you," she said, inclining her head to the jury.

Then she turned and shook hands with her attorney, Edward J. Riley, and resumed her seat.

When the verdict was announced, Justice Aspinall said:

"The laws of the State of New York provide in all criminal actions that the jurors are the sole judges of the fact of the crime. The jurors must receive the law from the court and apply it to the facts. I charged you with the correct law this morning. You accepted this law and applied it to the facts and under your oath of office as exalted jurists you have found this defendant not guilty of murder in the first degree. This court must bow to your wishes and accept your verdict."

"You have performed a great duty. Your verdict may not be approved by some and may be approved by others. While the law is on the statute books of this State, it must be obeyed. I trust that in the remainder of your lives you will never again be called upon to perform such an important duty as you have performed in this case."

Justice Aspinall then turned to Miss Stone and asked her to stand up.

"Miss Stone," he said, "You have been accorded a fair and impartial jury. I have endeavored to hold the scales of justice equally balanced between you and the people of this State. Twelve reputable citizens have said you are not guilty under the law. I, therefore discharge you and you are now a free woman."

Miss Stone was led to an ante-room by her attorney and two matrons of the Raymond Street Jail. She looked ten years younger than she did when she appeared on the witness stand a few days before. Women spectators in the court room showered her with flowers.

NO "MATES" IN ROBBER'S LOOT

CHICAGO, April 6.—Two sample cases stolen from the automobile of T. J. Kegley, a shoe salesman, were found intact today. The cases contained 65 shoes, but the robber, police said, was a victim of a trick of the trade. All were for the left foot.

DESTROYERS ARRIVE.

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, April 6.—Four British destroyers have arrived here, supposedly to protect government supplies against another Republican coup, such as that when raiders last week seized explosives on board an admiralty ship off Cork.

The characters in a new book for children are made of wood with movable parts, and fit into pockets in the pages.

THREE HELD AFTER RAID
LYNCHBURG, April 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Three men, former employees of the Danville branch of the Winston-Salem branch, and G. H. Younger, formerly "news butcher" on the Winston-Salem branch, were held yesterday by Federal Commissioner T. J. O'Brien here under the "dry" laws. The raid was conducted by local prohibition officers Monday night, and it is alleged that a 200-gallon copper still and six 500-gallon coppers were destroyed and 25 gallons of corn liquor were found.

A SWISS DOT IS SOMETIMES SQUARE

WHEN is a dot not a dot? When is a square not a square, or a wee circle, or even a minute embroidered rosebud?

They still call the fabric dotted Swiss by the Swiss, unlike the legend of Switzerland, and has changed its name from plain dots to all sorts of elaborate designs.

Not that no round dots remain, however. As a matter of fact, most of the spring Swisses are dotted as of old. But the newer figure is noted in the finer grades of this ever delightful summer fabric.

Look for colors, abundant, almost glowing white out of the running except for combinations and gradations of blue with red, rose pink or green dots, soft shades of green or white dots; lavender with dots; purple dots; brown with golden yellow dots; or vice versa. Many of the charming combinations to be found in the seasons' Swisses, which make the most practical of hot weather frocks.

The organdie family gives every indication of its intent on taking an active part in American social life this coming summer.

Organdie, crisp and pert, is the flapper's own fabric. Nothing more becomes her, nothing so well brings out the slender grace of her body, as this material. Indeed, only the slender, the young, the bright, should attempt to wear organdie. A stout woman in crisp, outstanding organdie, is simply grotesque. And a faded skin above an organdie frock is very, very sad.

For summer party frocks the daintiest pastel shades are most loved. Orchid is as popular as rose-pink, and eel blue is another favorite. Yellow in the new dent de lion shade, with a wreath of black-eyed Susans for a girdle, makes one charming organdie frock.

Organdie is much used to combine with dotted Swisses or printed cotton materials for the two-tone, or twofabric frocks so much in vogue just now.

WOULD AID MEAT INDUSTRY.

MELBOURNE, Australia, April 6.—Premier Hughes today gave details of an elaborate plan to assist the meat export industry of Queensland. The plan proposes reductions in wages and in freight and handling charges; the granting of a commonwealth subsidy; and an effort by the commonwealth government to get rid of old stocks now in London.

Harry Monos Twice Indicted

restaurant robbery suggested to him that the place was in the hands of robbers. Knowing a way of getting into the restaurant without using the doors, he lifted the iron grating over the coal hole and in this way slipped down into the basement. Making his way to the basement steps, he heard footsteps above him. He mounted the steps to the first floor and heard a door to a small lavatory close. He pushed it open and, the affidavit runs, he found Harry Monos there alone. Monos had a bucket with him and he watched him remove the lid, light a candle, which he blew out. Brady watched Monos then scoop some fluid out of the bucket with a tin can and fling it to the ceiling and around the walls. The fluid ran down the walls to the floor. After most of the contents of the bucket had been emptied in this way, Monos took the lid of the bucket, and placing it near a stream of liquid, lit a piece of candle which, was about five inches higher than the lid.

For some reason, Brady did not intervene. He crept back as cautiously as he entered the building and he went home. The next morning when he got up the restaurant and adjoining property had been fire-swept.

Brady did not make any complaint to the authorities and was on yesterday that the damaging affidavit was taken down in a lawyer's office. The state is said to have one witness who overheard Monos make a remark to another Greek relative to "burning the place up."

Just how the Brady affidavit came to be made is not known, neither could it be learned today how it reached the hands of the commonwealth's attorney, Police Sergeant J. H. Martin and an out-of-town detective are said to have been working on the case since January.

The closest secrecy was maintained last night and it was impossible to secure any information as to the purpose of the grand jury either from Sergeant Martin or Mr. Carter. It is understood, however, that Mr. Carter determined upon the special grand jury almost as soon as he had read the affidavit for the purpose of utilizing the powers vested in the grand jury and which can be applied to a reluctant witness.

Brady apparently was worried over the thought of testifying against his kinsman and also the possible danger of involving himself, since he had witnessed the alleged early stage of arson and took no action to stop it, neither did he make a report of the affair to the police.

Monos was arrested at his home on Patton street by Police Sergeant Martin and Edward at 8:30 a. m.

Monos recently has been away from Danville. Not long after the fire, which completely wiped out his restaurant, Monos declared that if fortune dogged his footsteps and that he had suffered four fires in four years, he had decided to quit the restaurant business and turn to farming.

Monos' two arson cases to be tried in the commonwealth term of court. Besides the Monos case, there is that of John Smith, who is indicted for arson and arson at James Hunter's boarding house.

The fire which broke out at ten o'clock on Monday night, January 2, 1921, at the hotel, destroyed a building which was valued at fifty thousand dollars. Not only did it destroy the building but it swiftly spread to the building on the other side which was valued at twenty thousand dollars. The fire then spread to the building on the other side which was valued at twenty thousand dollars. Predicts Coal Famine Soon If Strike Continues

NEW YORK, April 6.—Predicting that the nation will be in the midst of a bituminous coal famine in six weeks unless the present strike is settled, Philip Murray, vice president of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight declared "Congress must be blind not to see what the country is up against."

Mr. Murray, cited that the United States Steel corporation and its subsidiaries in the Pittsburgh district now have only sufficient coal for 72 hours. A shut-down of the mills due to lack of coal will throw 200,000 men out of work, he said.

came a "fight to the finish."

In support of his prediction of a famine, Mr. Murray asserted that the stock piles of the country contain only six million tons of bituminous coal, of which twenty millions already are in the bins of the consumers. At the present rate of consumption of eight million tons a week, the forty million tons will suffice for only another five weeks, according to Mr. Murray's figures.

Claims of the operators that the production of non-union mines would prolong the nation's supply to eight weeks were denied by the union leader. Latest reports from non-union strongholds, he said, indicate that 75 per cent of the non-union miners would have walked out with the strikers before the week-end. 50 per cent, have already done so, he said.

"I estimate that, when the present stocks are exhausted," he said "the non-union miners will have piled up sufficient fuel for one more week. Then will come an actual shortage which will cripple basic industries throughout the country."

New Steamship Line To Operate

NEW YORK, April 7.—Passenger traffic by water will shortly be resumed between New York and Norfolk by the Old Dominion Transportation Company, which will send its first vessel from Norfolk to New York April 12, arriving here at 3 p. m. the following day. The new company is not to be confused with the Old Dominion Steamship Company, an entirely separate concern, which two years ago abandoned service. The steamships Jefferson and Hamilton, formerly of the old company, are in the new service.

D. A. Winslow is president and Augustus Winslow vice president and general manager of the new company. In company with Norman R. Hamilton, collector of the port of Norfolk, they were in town yesterday completing arrangements for the arrival of the Jefferson on Thursday next. The run from Norfolk to New York will be made in 18 hours with a $12 fare, including three meals and a berth.

The new company will operate three ships, the Jefferson, the Hamilton and the Alliance, and will sail from New York on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Swanson Writes He Will Be in August Primary

RICHMOND, April 6.—Announcement of his intention to become a candidate to succeed himself was made yesterday by Senator Claude A. Swanson in letters addressed from Washington to people in this State. He will be opposed by Westmoreland Davis, former governor of Virginia. "I will be a candidate in the democratic primary August 1 for re-election," writes the senator. Then he goes on to say:

"I have endeavored earnestly and faithfully to discharge my duties as senator and think my long experience, my committee assignments and the fact that I am a member of the democratic steering committee, which largely directs the democratic policy in the senate, will enable me to serve Virginia even more effectively in the future."

With the "active and earnest support" of his friends, the senator believes he will win.

It is probable that Senator Swanson will not be able to make an extensive personal campaign in Virginia this year, since in all likelihood congress will remain in session well into the summer.

Meantime, former Governor Davis is planning to make a vigorous fight throughout the commonwealth.

—Warren W. Ferrell, a former resident, now of Tulsa, Okla., is in the city on business.

CITIZENS LIVING IN OTHER LANDS MUST PAY TAXES

WASHINGTON, April 6.—American citizens living in Cuba and South American countries must pay taxes to the United States on incomes derived from sources within foreign countries, according to a statement issued tonight by the internal revenue bureau. However, the statement added, where it appears that a naturalized citizen has re-established a permanent residence in his native country he is held to have forfeited his American citizenship and hence will not be liable for American taxes.

TUBERCULAR INFECTION GREAT IN ORPHANAGE AT WINSTON

RALEIGH, N. C., April 6.—Ninety-six per cent of the children in the Methodist orphanage at Winston-Salem reacted to tuberculin tests following an investigation that was ordered when the entire dairy herd of the institution was found infected with tuberculosis and ordered killed, it became known here today. Very few of the children showed clinical symptoms of the disease.

Health authorities here are not alarmed at the result of the test, and believe that little permanent harm will come of the presence of tubercular cattle in the institution's dairy. Practically 95 per cent of the adult population of the country would show the same reaction to the tuberculin test, it is declared, and with the removal of the source of active infection, the danger is believed to have been eliminated.

"Everybody has tubercular infection, but relative few have tuberculosis," declared State Health Officer W. S. Rankin, commenting on the condition at the Winston-Salem orphanage. "Ninety-five out of every hundred people would show the same reaction to the Bon Pirquet test as did these children. It is only when the physical resistance to the infection is broken down that tuberculosis develops."

Veterinary inspectors, working in co-operation with the Forsyth county officials, discovered the situation at the orphanage several weeks ago. Out of the herd of 31 cattle, all but two of the milk cows were found infected, and most of them were in such advanced stages of the disease that the carcasses were burned after they were killed. All of the infected cattle were killed immediately, and healthy cattle substituted.

OTTAWA NOTES DISTANT QUAKE

OTTAWA, Ont., April 6.—A distant earthquake, probably in the East Indies, was registered at the Dominion observatory today. The distance to the epicentre was figured by scientists as about 8,000 miles.

SPEEDING TRAIN KILLS THREE PERSONS IN CAR AT CROSSING

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 6.—Three persons from Philadelphia were killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad this afternoon 12 miles below Mohrsville, Berks county by the flyer for Philadelphia which left here at 3:30. Two have been identified as Fred Sigmund, of No. 3426 North Sixth street, aged 40, and Miss Theresa Eberle, aged 18, of No. 3035 North Reese street. The third victim is an unidentified girl, about 12 years old. Both Sigmund and the younger girl were killed instantly, but the other girl lived a short while after the accident, dying before medical assistance could be summoned. She was unconscious up to the time of her death.

The train, going at high speed, struck the automobile in which they were riding and carried the debris on the locomotive pilot for a quarter of a mile before the train could be stopped, the wreckage catching fire and furnishing a spectacular sight. The bodies were thrown off near the site of the collision.

The highway extends southward close to the railroad tracks in this locality and the engineer was totally unprepared for the effort of the driver of the car to cross the tracks in front of the train, which could have been seen and heard readily.

Battles Hell Gate Tide to Save Girl

New York Sea Crowd of Women at Struggle

NEW YORK, April 6.—More than a hundred persons crowded the East River sea wall at Eighty-sixth street late yesterday afternoon and saw Frederick Beck, of 352 East Sixty-fifth street save Miss Mary Begley of 165 East Forty-ninth street from drowning. Holding her above water with one hand Beck battled more than 15 minutes with the strong tide that swept over from Hell Gate. Both were finally dragged on board the tug Thomas Mulry, a department of welfare boat.

Beck told the police he was walking along the sea wall at Eighty-fifth street when he saw Miss Begley on the edge of the wall either fall or jump into the water.

Without removing even his shoes, Beck leaped into the river and swam toward the woman, who had begun to sink. He reached her as she was going down the third time and seized her hair, held her with one arm about her neck while he treaded water and kept both afloat as best he could.

The crowd on the sea wall watched mostly of women and Beck probably would have drowned had not the crew of the Mulry noticed the commotion on the sea wall. The tug put on speed when the crew saw the heads of Beck and Miss Begley.

Fifteen minutes after Beck jumped off the wall the tug came alongside. A rope was thrown, and Beck and Miss Begley were dragged aboard. The Mulry went on to Blackwell's Island, where both were put to bed and treated for submersion. They will go to their homes this morning. Miss Begley told the police she left her home to go shopping and did not remember anything until she found she was in the river. She did not recall she had gone to the sea wall.

ORDERED NOT TO CAPTURE BEAST

BUENOS AIRES, April 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Professor Clement Onelli, director of the Buenos Aires Zoo, who organized the exposition which left for Potagonia March 23, in search of the reported plesiosaurian monster, was disturbed today by despatches from Trelew, the principal town of the province of Chubut, saying Governor Franzoni of the province had given orders forbidding the capture of the beast.

The despatches said that the governor acted on instructions from the minister of the interior in Buenos Aires who decided to prohibit the hunt at the behest of the Dr. Albaracin, president of the Argentina society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Nothing has been heard from the expedition since it plunged into the wilderness after arriving at Barroche Pass, in the edge of the Andes Mountains. Today's despatches said Governor Franzoni had given instructions to the territory police to warn the members of the expedition not to proceed.

Professor Onelli called upon Minister of the Interior Gomez this afternoon to protest against the order "in the name of science."

NO CHANGE SHOWN

Overcoming the Handicap of Distance

YOU can talk to any place in the United States where there is a telephone. You can even talk to Cuba! Your field is unlimited.

You may seldom, if ever, have occasion to talk to points hundreds of miles away, but you do have use for service to nearby places.

A telephone call will do away with the necessity of many time-consuming trips. A few minutes at the telephone often save hours of time.

The rates are reasonable, and station-to-station rates are greatly reduced after 8.30 P. M. The pages in the front of your telephone directory explain the different classes of calls and reduced rates fully. The minimum reduced rate is 25 cents.

Ask the operator for rates to any place.

LONDON, April 6.—According to a dispatch to the London Times from Melbourne, the grave condition of the beef industry in Queensland, which is the chief cattle State, has led to negotiations between the government and the producing and exporting interests in an endeavor to secure more favorable markets abroad. The dispatch adds that the situation is most seriously affected by the war accumulations in London and "the active hostility of the American trust."

she became Mrs. Grafton before either

Before the Supreme Court Grand

2, as Murphy referred to Ellen Mc-
Intyre, are said to have told the same story they told Murphy earlier about Grafton's alleged "whirlwind" method of love-making and unusual ability to be perfectly happy with either of the women who claim to be his wife
"with 'other dear charmer away."

"MOST PATIENT BRIDEGROOM"
PLANS ITALIAN HONEYMOON

MARY LANDON BAKER AND ALLISTER McCORMICK

BY MILTON BRONNER

(Copyright, 1922, by NEA Service.)
LONDON, April 7.—Allister McCormick is going ahead with plans for a honeymoon in Italy with Mary Landon Baker.

The world's most patient bridegroom—Miss Baker has postponed the wedding four times since when the guests were assembled at the church in Chicago—tells me he expects Miss Baker to sail from America for England soon.

The last announcement that she would sail April 7 was that she would sail April 7.

McCormick is living with his brother, E. H. McCormick, in a charming old English cottage 25 miles from London.

"We expect to marry some place in London," he said. "And we expect to go to Italy on our honeymoon trip. Possibly we will tour Switzerland, France and England."

When asked to answer the question "What two continents have been asking, 'Why did Miss Baker postpone the marriage so many times?'" McCormick replied:

"There has been no misunderstanding and no quarrel. She put off the marriage simply because of her delicate health."

This agrees with the statement Miss Baker made on her way from California, where she has been resting, to Chicago and New York to take the Aquitania for England. She told a friend that the many social activities which she engaged in previous to the date on which she disappointed the assembled wedding guests, caused her complete collapse that morning so that she was unconscious for hours.

Morocco's Marriage Starts Investigation

DETROIT, April 6.—Investigation of the residence of Oliver Morocco, theatrical producer, who was married at Santa Anna, Cal., Saturday to Miss Selma Paley, Los Angeles actress, three days after he was granted a decree of divorce here from his first wife was ordered today by Circuit Judge Harry J. Dingman, of Detroit.

Edward Pokorney, friend of the court, was instructed to make the investigation in an effort to learn whether collusion existed.

Morocco filed divorce proceedings against his first wife, Anna Mitchell, several months ago, using his family name, Oliver Mitchell, and giving his residence at Bloomfield Hills, a Detroit suburban district. In his bill of complaint he charged his wife with "nagging" him, casting reflections on his business ability and "trying to lead him to her will." The wife filed a cross-bill for divorce, alleging cruelty and infidelity and naming as co-respondent Miss Paley, who now is Mrs. Morocco.

Morocco married his first wife in San Francisco December 15, 1921. He has a son, Walter, 23 years old.

It is understood here that Morocco has settled $250,000 upon his first wife in lieu of alimony.

Complaints

We don't enjoy listening to complaints. That's why we enjoy settling in a satisfactory manner and turning a dissatisfied customer into a friend.

If you are carrying around a seeming grievance against us, recent or otherwise we want to know and assist you in getting a satisfactory settlement.

We don't claim that we are perfect, we never hope to be. But we want to improve all the time. Your criticism will help us see our mistake and prevent the same mistake being made twice.

Bring your troubles to us at the Piedmont Exposition. You will find a spirit of courtesy and attention at our booth.
